Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school.

We, Kelford School, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer (DPO) is Warren Carratt (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Fulfil a contract we have entered into with you

- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

Staff information is also kept electronically on our Information Management System (SIMS) which is stored on our internal secure server. This information can be used by third party companies who we contract to provide a service. If this is the case we will do a thorough assessment of their systems and policies to ensure they are compliant with GDPR and your data is held securely and will not be mishandled and the service they provide has a legal basis for using your information.

Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with the Nexus Multi Academy Trust Records Management Policy. This can be accessed online at <http://nexusmat.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/08/Records-Management-Policy-1.pdf> or you can request a hard copy by contacting school.
